THE ARREST OF THE FRENCH COMMISSA-RY.—The arrest of M. Schnaebeles, the French Commissary, by the Germans was mentioned in the GAZETTE's telegraphic dispatches yesterday. It is feared it may lead to unfortunate results. Le Paris calls it "another provocation," and asks if Bismarck is seeking a casus belli. The activity shown in military circles in Berlin during the past few days, and the fact that large numbers of soldiers have traveled over the various railways en route to join their respective regiments, have given rise to fresh war rumors and caused much uneasiness. It is semi-officially explained, however, that all this activity is due solely to the fact that the reserves have been called out for the usual spring drill. The Germans requested Commissary Schnaebeles to set up one of the pests which mark the frontier. SPIRITUALISM IN COURT.-The jury in the case of Mrs. Sarah Patterson, an alleged medium, charged by the Medical Society of Philadelphia with practicing medicine and surgery without being registered as a physician, yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of guilty. The defence set up by the defendant's counsel, Carrie B. Kilgore, and Steam Flooring & Planing Mill her husband, Damon Y. Kilgore, was that Mrs. Patterson was a medium and under the control of the spirits, and was not, therefore, responsible for what she had done in a trance. The defendant's counsel are both pronounced spiritualists, and the case has attracted considerable interest, the court room being crowded since the trial began. After the verdict was announced, Mrs. Kilgore, the lady lawyer, made a motion for a new trial and an arrest of judgment, saying that they would file their reasons within the prescribed time. The motion was granted, and in the meantime the judge permitted the defendant to renew her bail. In his charge to the jury, Judge Arnold said; "The question before you is a simple question, whether or not the defendant practiced medicine, surgery or any of their branches for gain, and received or accepted certain fees from the two witnesses. If she did, she is guilty in manner and form as she stands indicted, unless you believe that she was insane, and not responsible for her acts, and if you acquit her on that ground, you are to say not gulity on the ground of insanity, and then we can put her in an asylum. Spiritualism is no defence whatever; therefore, dismiss all you have heard about spiritualism.

TERRIBLE SHIPWRECK .- A terrible shipwreck, accompanied by the loss of thirtythree lives, took place off the coast of Oregon, about thirty miles north of Cape Flattery, during the early part of this month. For some time past considerable anxiety had been felt regarding the schooner Active, having on board five Swedes and twenty Clayaquete Indians, and which was long overdue. The schooner was owned by Guttman & Co., of Victoria, B. C., and was registered at 420 tons. Last week Mr. Frank one of the owners, went up the west coast on the government steamer Sir James Doug-las in search of news of the missing vessel but has not yet returned. The Active was engaged in general coast trade, and had a valuable cargo of assorted merchandise on

TO THE HOLDERS

Virginia Consols and 10-40 Bonds

We are authorized by the council of foreign bondholders to call the attention of holders of Virginia consols and 10 40s to the fact that the English bondholders are endcavoring, through the instrumentality of the council of foreign bondholders, to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the debt of Virginia.

With this object in view, the English bondholders have, to a large extent, agreed to pool their bonds and have authorized the council of foreign bondholders to act for them in the negotiations which age about to be had between a commission sent out from London and a committee appointed by the Legislature of Virginia.

It is most desirable that all holders of Virginia bonds, both at home and abroad, should unite in the elfort to effect an early actilement of the State debt. To better accomplish this object, the council of foreign bondholders carnestly request the holders of Virginia bonds in America to cooperate with them and to forward to curselves their names and addresses, stating the amount of bonds held, at as early a day as possible.

We will be glad to furnish copies of the plan adopted by the English bondholders for pooling their bonds at London, and to give any other information that may be desired.
